

Sacrifice: Letters to Schooltours, written by pupils of the 2 BK

Dear Schooltours,

I saw your performance of the play "Sacrifice" last Friday at the theater in Hallein and I have to say I really liked it. I think the actors were great, and they played their characters really well. The play was very interesting, because something like that could possibly happen to each of us, as the rate of teenage crime is increasing very quickly.

What I learned from the play was not to walk home on my own in the evenings, and if I do, I will look at people around me very carefully. I am going to try not to get involved into confrontations like the one in the play. What I am really afraid of is that a friend gets into a confrontation, because then I can't run away and let him on his own.

All in all I think it is a great idea to show plays like this and I would like to see the next play offered by schooltours.

Yours

N.

Dear Schooltours,

my name is C. and I want to tell you something about the play "Sacrifice" we saw last Friday. First I want to say, this was a great performance. The actors were very funny and I enjoyed the play. I liked Liam and Josh most, they were so funny like real "Hallein Boys". The plot was quite good, but I didn't understand the end: Are Jake and Beth best friends or more?

I have learned a lot from this play. I never trust boys who get drunk. In future when I see some drunken boys I will go away. No I want to tell you about my favourite scene: It was where Liam told Beth to give him her telephone number.

I was happy to read the book first, because I can't imagine that I would have understood much without reading it before.

All in all, I liked the play, maybe I'll watch it a second time.

Yours

C.

Dear Schooltours,

my name is H., I am from Salzburg and I watched your performance last Friday.

I have to say that it was the best performance of Schooltours I have watched in the last three years. I was really impressed by the actors. Last year the play was pretty boring, I am sorry, but I think so. But this year it was really interesting. It was good to read the booklet before in order to understand what the actors were talking about.

"Sacrifice" showed me that it is better to talk to other people than to fight.

The performance was also funny and the actors could be proud to make 100 pupils laugh because these days most teenagers are too cool to laugh. I hope the next performance will be funny as well. The actors earn some big respect.

So I wish you a good time and I look forward to seeing you next year again.

Yours

H.